

CSPI Announces Asset Acquisition of DataLink, Inc.

Dear Valued Customer,

Computer Service Professionals, Inc. (CSPI) is pleased to announce the acquisition of DataLink Inc.'s assets (Springfield, MO), effective Monday, October 10, 2011. The addition of DataLink's product solutions and personnel to the CSPI family will enable CSPI to continue providing quality products and software solutions. By merging DataLink and CSPI's similar products, CSPI will create a unified solution with the best features and functionality from both existing products. This best of breed new product will carry the name of Aurora Document.NET.

CSPI's focus is on a seamless transition to ensure our customers experience a continuation of quality service they have come to expect. CSPI views this as a positive "win win" for our customers and each company. This acquisition will strengthen and broaden CSPI's ability to support our customer's demand for quality software solutions.
